CONSENT FOR COUNSELING SERVICES TO MINORS

In order for minor children/adolescents to receive psychological services, it is necessary for the parent or legal guardian to grant permission for such services to occur.

Name(s) and date of birth of child(ren) to receive psychological services:

Name _____ Date of Birth _____

Name _____ Date of Birth _____

Name _____ Date of Birth _____

Name of person requesting services: _____

Your relationship to child(ren): Parent Stepparent Guardian Grandparent Other

Are you the legal parent or custodian to above-named children? Yes No

In instances of divorce, it is essential that the legal custodian of the child(ren) grant permission for the services. If you are a divorced parent, a stepparent, a grandparent, a guardian, or other, you may be asked to provide a copy of the court order which names you the legal custodian of the above child(ren). Are you willing to do so? Yes No

If the answer to any of the above questions is "No", counseling services cannot be provided to the above-named child(ren) until a copy of the court order which names you the legal custodian is provided to the office.

I acknowledge that both natural parents, even though divorced, may have a right to obtain from the provider named below information regarding the nature and course of treatment for the child(ren).

North Carolina state law mandates the reporting of certain types of child abuse, including physical abuse, sexual abuse, unlawful sexual intercourse, neglect, emotional and psychological abuse. All actual or suspect acts of child abuse will need to reported to the appropriate agency. This treatment may also include referral to other appropriate State and County agencies for further counseling.

I, _____, consent to Perri May, a provider at May and Associates Therapy Center in providing psychological services to the child(ren) named above.
