

Join Our Growing Therapy Practice in Mooresville, NC

A place where therapists feel supported, connected and valued.

Our growing psychotherapy practice is looking for four additional contracted therapists (24 to 34 clients per week) to join our collaborative, welcoming team. We have built a practice where clinicians genuinely support one another, share ideas and enjoy being part of a close-knit professional community.

We believe therapists do their best work when they feel supported and can focus on what matters most: helping their clients.

What makes our practice special?

- A warm collaborative, family-like team culture
- Administrative support for scheduling, billing, payments and other office responsibilities
- Client referrals to help you build your caseload
- Flexible scheduling with in-person and telehealth options
- Opportunities for peer consultation, professional growth and clinical collaboration
- An emphasis on work-life balance and sustainable clinical workload

We welcome fully licensed therapists and will consider qualified associate clinicians. Candidates must be appropriately credentialed to practice in North Carolina.

Our advertised compensation range is $75,000 - $106,000 annually, depending on clinical workload and other applicable terms.

If you are looking for a practice where you can grow professionally, feel connected to your colleagues and enjoy coming to work, we would love to hear from you.
